

WAIFS FROM THE OLD WORLD.

The Troubles Growing Out of the Recent Resignation of the Spanish Cabinet.

France Still Refuses to Make Any Further Apology to Spain.

Counsel for O'Donnell, the Slayer of Carey, Collecting Evidence for the Defense.

The Black Flag Quarrel With Their Allies, the Chinese Regulars.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—A Paris dispatch to Reuters' Telegraph company says it is generally expected in diplomatic and official circles there that owing to the resignation of the Spanish cabinet, the Duc de Fernand, the Spanish ambassador to France, will resign.

The prosecutor in the case of O'Donnell, the murderer of Carey, has obtained depositions from all their witnesses and have placed their whole case before Mr. Guy, solicitor for O'Donnell. The latter, in an interview yesterday with Mr. Guy, expressed the hope that he would be acquitted, not so much for his own sake as for the sake of those who have so kindly subscribed for his defense.

A dispatch to Reuters' Telegraph company from St. Petersburg says: A dispatch from Vladivostok announces that the steamer Kamschatka arrived there yesterday. She reports that eleven trading schooners, whose nationality is unknown, after driving off the American guardship Leon, belonging to the Alaskan Commercial company, stationed at the island of Tuljien, landed sixty armed men, including some Japanese, and took possession of the island. The Leon immediately proceeded to Kamschatka, a station on the island of Saghalien, and demanded assistance. Owing to the small number of the garrison stationed there no assistance was available. When the Kamschatka returned, the captain saw eight schooners lying off the island.

BELFAST, Oct. 11.—Sir Stafford Northcote has addressed a letter to the mayor of Belfast, expressing regret for the attack upon the convent by orangemen during his visit here last week.

DUBLIN, Oct. 11.—The informer Lanie has been committed to prison, it having been ascertained by the authorities that he was about leaving the country to evade giving testimony against his brother in law, Poole, in the approaching trial of the latter for the murder of Kenney.

[In an examination before the court on the fourth of April last night it was announced that Kinney was murdered gave him (Lanie) a full account of how the deed was done.]

At the regular fortnightly meeting of the National League last night it was announced that $1,000 had been received from Australia by the treasurer during the week, and also $1,000 from America.

A motion by Mr. Biggar, M. P., was carried condemning the partitioning of Ireland in the hands of the British Government, and in claiming the league meetings announced to be held in county Clare, while tolerating the addresses of Sir Stafford Northcote in Ulster, which resulted in an assault upon a convent.

PARIS, Oct. 11.—The report printed in the Gaulois that a reconciliation had been effected by President Ferry between M. Ferry and M. Wilson is semi-officially denied.

MADRID, Oct. 11.—The ministry was unable to agree upon what course should be pursued by the government in view of the refusal of France to make further reparation for the treatment of King Alfonso in Paris. Gen. Martiniere, minister of war, has renewed his resignation to resign. For these and other reasons the entire ministry tendered their resignations to the king, leaving the task of settling the pending difficulties with France to a new ministry.

MADRID, Oct. 11.—In a recent interview with King Alfonso Senor Sagasta declined to form a new cabinet, and advised that the task be entrusted to Senor Pasada-Herrera, who, he said, would perhaps be able to effect a union of the different groups of the liberal party. Senor Sagasta promised to support a cabinet formed on that basis. The king then summoned Senor Pasada-Herrera, who undertook the task. The latter then visited Marshal Serrano and offered him three ministerial departments for his followers. Marshal Serrano decided to consult the members of his party regarding the matter, and a meeting of the latter was held yesterday evening. It was not known what decision was arrived at, but it is generally thought that Senor Camacho, the late minister of finance, will resume that post, and the remaining seats will be divided among the dynastic left and the supporters of Senor Sagasta.

HONG KONG, Oct. 12.—It is reported here that the Black Flag quarrel with their allies, the Chinese regulars, in the provinces of Yuen-Nan and Kwang-Si.

ARMY REUNION.

The Gathering of Veterans at Lawrence, Kan.—Gen. Pope's Address.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 11.—The Journal's Leavenworth special says: The meeting at Camp Pope last night was a great success. The programme was opened by Gen. Pope in a few well chosen remarks. He was followed by Senator Ingalls, Hon. Lewis Harbuck, Col. J. R. Halliwell, Mayor Wm. Warren, of Kansas City, and others. After the speeches the evening was given up to social diversions, which continued until a late hour.

The soldiers of Pennsylvania now residents in Kansas organized an association to-day.

In the evening the entire time of the reunion was taken up in speaking. The speakers included Gen. Pope, Neely, Senator Ingalls, Hon. Lewis Harbuck, Gen. Wm. Warner, and Gov. Glyke. Gen. Marmaduke was expected, but was not present. Every house in the town is full of visitors. The court house and the Morris school building accommodate over a thousand people each, and all the public halls are overflowing. Five hundred more tents are being erected. Preparations are being made to receive ten thousand more visitors to-day. At the camp fire last night Mayor Neely welcomed the veterans. He assured them that he had but voiced the universal sentiment of the people here had the honor to represent. Col. Anthony introduced Gen. Pope as the patriot soldier, scholar, and statesman, and one whose heart always beat in sympathy with the veteran who had served through the great civil struggle. Senator Ingalls promised his old soldiers that on the opening of the next congress he should introduce a bill which would repeal the act which limited the time for soldiers making an application of arrears to Jan. 1, 1880. When he closed there were three hearty cheers given for him.

The Special Dispatch.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 11.—At a meeting of republicans and independent democrats to-night arrangements were completed for the fusion ticket. The names will not be known for a few days, but Heiskell is rumored for mayor.

The republican city convention has been called to meet Saturday night to ratify the ticket.

Desendorf at Harrisonburg.

HARRISONBURG, Va., Oct. 11.—Desendorf and a negro from Washington spoke here to-night. His audience was composed of bourbon funder democrats and sorehead straight republicans, such as Botts, Lurvey,

COCHRAN, HUNNET, AND DONOVAN, JOHN T.

Harris, bourbon county chairman; Ritenour, funder mayor, and Bryan were present, and cheered the negro when he denounced John S. Wise as the son of the man who hung John Brown. Honest bournons left the meeting in disgust, and this performance of "Dexy" and his ally has, with their abuse of Mahone and Ritenour, roused the indignation of the roadsters, especially the colored people, to the highest pitch.

THE ELECTION RETURNS.

Hondy's Majority Over 13,000—The Republican Victory in Iowa.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 11.—More complete returns from Tuesday's election indicate an increase in the democratic majority, which will probably be considerably over 12,000. The senate will have from 2 to 10 democratic majority, and the house is estimated to stand 43 republicans and 62 democrats.

Later returns on the legislative ticket indicate that the democratic majority on joint ballot will also be more than 12,000. The second amendment will receive about 300,000 votes, and will probably be adopted unless the cities go strongly against it. The judicial amendment is carried beyond doubt. The first amendment will not get over 100,000 votes. The prohibition vote is estimated at from 5,000 to 20,000, and the greenback vote at 2,000.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 11.—The Times-Star footings of the Hamilton county vote elect Charles B. Brown, republican, senator, William Peet and Peter F. Stricker, republicans, as county commissioners. It makes Hondy's majority 1,898. The official returns must be awaited with certainty as to the senators and representatives.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—A special to the Journal from Des Moines, Iowa, says Sherman's majority will reach 30,000. Complete returns from the election show that the democratic districts, give 13,300, and partial returns from the remaining counties give him 27,000. His plurality will not be less than 12,000. The lower house is close. The republicans now have a lead of 1,000. Of the remaining 5 the republicans will get 3. The senate now stands—Republicans, 37; opposition, 8; in doubt, 5. Judge Cook is elected to congress in the sixth district by a small majority.

WISCONSIN CYCLONE.

The Air Turns a Reddish Green Color, and Houses are Torn to Fragments.

LACROSSE, Wis., Oct. 11.—The Republic and Leader has further details of the cyclone which struck the little town of Arcadia, in Trempealeau county, Monday night. None of the injured died. The storm struck the town at midnight. The air was charged with electricity that lights could not burn. People rushed to the cellars to avoid the danger which seemed imminent. The atmosphere was of a reddish green color with a strong sulphur odor. Barns and out buildings were torn from their foundations, dashed to fragments, and scattered.

Broken boards, trees, bricks, and stones filled the air, and well ventilated houses were so violently in some cases as to drive them through the sides of buildings. Among the losers are Patrick Manning and a farmer named Olsen, who lost everything. John Johnson lost his granary, barn, and contents, 1,000 tons of hay, horses, and blooded stock. John Robertson's house, barn, and outbuildings were destroyed. James Gaveny lost an orchard valued at $5,000. Senator Comstock's house, granary, and outbuildings were destroyed. There were many other losses, varying from $100 to $1,000. Mrs. Bessy and Miss Piper, who were most injured by their falling residence, are considered out of danger. The cyclone had its worst effects in the North Fork valley, damaging property, but causing no loss of life.

American Street Railway Association.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—At the meeting to-day of the American Street Railway association, now in session here, the question of heating the cars was again discussed. Various means raised the objection that the cars are too small to admit of heating apparatus. Mr. Maxwell, of St. Louis thought the supposed objection for heating cars was only the clamor of the newspapers. He thought the cars should give good and well ventilated cars, and pay no attention to the constantly recurring demands from the public. If the cars were heated in winter passengers would want fans in summer, and then machines would also have to be supplied to keep flies off the passengers.

Mr. Charles Kreismann, now of Berlin, and interested in street railways there, but who was formerly a resident of the United States, declared that in the Berlin roads he had allowed the latitude about caring for passengers that American roads enjoy the profits from traffic would be greatly in excess of what they are now.

The Sessions Trial.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 11.—At the trial of L. B. Sessions this morning, the cross examination of ex-Assemblyman Bradley was continued. He testified that he had had several conversations with politicians in Olean and Albany about his vote, but had no thought of bribery before the Sessions affair. He pronounced the Sessions case an Olean man's great opportunity for making money on this contest. Bradley said he was an inmate of the Binghamton Reformatory for eight months in 1877. When he met Sessions he lobbied for the Delavan house, he gave him money, and he was not for sale. He agreed after supper to go to Sessions's room. He went there and the two went to Bradley's room. He further stated that he locked the door of his room, as he thought that the Sessions would make improper proposals and they might be interrupted.

A Syndicate to Buy Northern Pacific Bonds.

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—It is officially announced that the syndicate headed by Messrs. Drexel, Morgan & Co., Winslow, Latier & Co., and August Belmont & Co., have made a proposition to the Northern Pacific Railroad company for the purchase of $18,000,000 second mortgage bonds authorized to be negotiated. The syndicate is composed practically of the same parties who negotiated the first mortgage bonds, and includes, in addition to the above firms, Messrs. Drexel & Co., of Philadelphia; J. S. Morgan & Co., of London; J. and W. Seligman & Co.; L. von Hoffmann & Co.; Robert Lennox Kennedy; C. B. Wright; Frederick Billings, and others. The finance committee of the Northern Pacific Railroad company will act upon the proposition at their meeting on Saturday.

A Horrible Accident.

OHIO, Oct. 11.—As Mr. Truogert, section boss on the Milwaukee and St. Paul road, was riding yesterday on a hand car with his wife and baby, his daughter in law, Mrs. Truogert, her husband and child, when near Wausau the hand of the elder Mrs. Truogert blew off, and in attempting to grasp it her baby slipped out of her hands in front of the car. The child was caught in the gears of the wheels and was instantly killed. The car was thrown from the track and was hurled some distance. Both women are probably fatally injured, and the other child will die.

The Yacht Race.

SANDY HOOK, N. Y., Oct. 11.—To-day was set for the race between the yachts Grace and Bedouin. At 9 o'clock a light northerly breeze and a thick fog prevailed. About 10 o'clock the contesting yachts, together with the steamer Lackawanna and the stake boat, The Mischief, were observed off the break. But the fog shut in again and the yachts were lost sight of before the start was made.

A DUEL IN THE STREET.

Two Baltimore Democrats Empty Their Revolvers at Each Other at the City Hall.

One of Them Mortally Wounded, but Still Alive—The Other in Custody.

Special Dispatch.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 11.—James F. Bussey, a notorious democratic ward runner and office-holder under the present administration, was mortally wounded by William F. Harig, another officeholder, to-day. The men quarreled over the primaries of last evening, and under the shadow of the city hall, shortly before noon to-day, exchanged nearly a dozen shots. In a few moments intense excitement prevailed in the vicinity, and several policemen and detectives appeared on the scene.

Both men were removed to the central police station, when it was found that Bussey had been shot in three places, one of the balls fired from an English bull dog pistol, having pierced the upper part of his abdomen, inflicting a wound that the physicians pronounced necessarily fatal. No ante mortem statement has been taken, although when Dr. Clarke, who was summoned from the city hospital, examined the wound in the abdomen, he asked, "Is he a Catholic?" "Yes," was the reply. In a short time several priests were at the bedside, and the last sacrament of the church were administered. Subsequently Bussey rallied slightly and made the following statement: "I was standing at the corner of Fayette and North streets, discussing the primaries yesterday when I was fired upon. I turned and struck Thater with my pistol weapon. Harig, who did not speak, drew his revolver and opened fire on me. He discharged the six chambers of his revolver, and he followed up the assault by striking me over the head with the barrel of his weapon. I was hit in the head, and the blood flowing from the wounds, but returned the fire and emptied my revolver, but don't know with what effect."

After the arrest of Harig and Thater had been made the intense excitement prevailed in the vicinity of the city hall, where great crowds had gathered. Physicians probed for the balls, and succeeded in extracting two of them from the shattered armor of the wounded man. His arms were broken. Shortly after Bussey reached the station his wife and children reached there. Bussey said, "My God, it is only for your sake that I regret this. It will be a large sum." The scene was a deeply affecting one. Outside the station were grouped a large number of politicians, among them Congressman Hobitzell, Col. E. T. Joyce, Judge E. A. Gibbs, Deputy States Attorneys Cross and Campbell, Street Commissioner Smith, City Register Robb, ex-Collector Anderson, Warden of the Jail Morrison, and many others. While there were many people ready to condemn Bussey, none were found to question his manhood. He has not been credited with having any last words. He declined to join a wine party. Bussey had the place of page in the last house of delegates of Maryland, and has since held positions under the city government, being only recently elected superintendent of the Fourth street district. Both he and his assailant were splendid specimens of physical manhood, weighing about 190 pounds each. While regarded as ward rangers, they were generally credited with being able to prevent disorderly when not excited by hostiles or inflamed by liquor.

At a late hour to-night Bussey was removed to his home, and at this hour is reported to be resting. Dr. Clarke, who examined the wounds, in attendance gives any hope.

The Fair at Frederick.

FREDERICK, Md., Oct. 11.—The big day of the fair is over, and the combination of beauty of skies, women, and temper was all that the most sanguine could expect. At 5 o'clock this morning the crowd began to flock in, and a steady stream all day kept the gate keepers busy. The twenty acres in the grounds was not too much to comfortably contain the 18,000 people who thronged all the department, and the crowd was so dense that the grand stand, and made the autumn air resonant with good natured jest and laughter, and exclamations of surprise and delight at each turn.

Mr. Holton was not able to be present, but a number of distinguished representatives from Baltimore, Washington, Hagerstown, and the valley of Virginia were present. Hon. Louis E. McCann, Col. H. Kyd Douglas, Messrs. Stonebraker, Garry, and others were on the grounds all day. The races were unusually good. The one-mile running race between P. Waldron's Chickadee and Pearl Thorn and Giesner's Reno was well contested, and won by Pearl Thorn, taking the second and third places, and making 1:50, Keno winning the first heat in 1:49.

The trotting races were won by Lingoer Chief and Billy J in 2:43, 2:45, 2:44, and 2:50, 2:47, 2:46, respectively.

The National Bibles of Washington was an enjoyable feature of the programme, and the correct drill, good discipline, and exceptional deportment of the men was a favorite theme with all. The day has been a big success in every way.

A Saloon Keepers' State Association.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 11.—Seventeen delegates attended the state saloon keepers' convention to-day. They passed resolutions, in the preamble of which they claimed to represent saloon keepers, brewers, liquor dealers, and cigar and tobacco manufacturers and dealers, and all legal citizens of the state. They resolve that as heavy taxpayers they are entitled to the same privileges as any other business men, especially as they are recognized by the United States government as engaged in legitimate business. They resolve that drunkenness is not due to the saloons, but to the lack of education in youth. They organize for the purpose of having good and just laws passed in their behalf, and to better oppose by all legal means all municipal, state, and national laws conflicting with their interests. They will vote for no candidate who is not first pledged to them and their interests, regardless of what party he may represent.

The Woman Suffragists.

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—The annual meeting of the American Woman Suffrage convention adjourned to-day after two days' session at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Seventy-one delegates were present from ten states. Mary B. Clay, of Kentucky, was elected president. It was resolved to petition state legislatures for municipal and presidential woman suffrage by statute, and to ask congress for a constitutional amendment. Encouraging reports were received from twenty-one states and territories. Ex-Gov. J. W. Hoyt telegraphed from Cheyenne: "Wyoming stands as solid as her mountains for the equal suffrage of women—a permanent political demonstration that great good and no evil has resulted. God speed your efforts for the enfranchisement of women."

New Jersey Veterans.

THRENTON, N. J., Oct. 11.—The Veteran association of the first regiment of New Jersey volunteer cavalry met here to-day. Charles T. Crosslamire, of Newark, was elected president; Lawrence McKinney, of the same city, secretary; and Joseph Kelly, of Philadelphia, treasurer. The vice presidents of last year were re-elected. Over a hundred veterans were present at the meeting, which is presided over by Gen. Kearge, of Princeton college. It is claimed that this regiment lost more men than any other in the state during the late war of the rebellion.

THE BANKERS' ASSOCIATION.

Proceedings of the Convention of Money Kings at Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 11.—The Bankers' association met at 10:30 this morning. George M. Davis, of Louisville, submitted a paper on bankruptcy, which, owing to its length, was not read, the author saying that it would be published.

The following resolution was offered and adopted:

Resolved, That the interests of the country demand the speedy enactment by congress of some regulation of commerce among the states equivalent for debtor and creditor in all sections of the country.

Mr. Davidson, of Cincinnati, submitted without reading a paper containing a digest of the laws of all the states on exemptions and preferences, which will be a subject for future discussion by the association.

Then came what might be called an experience meeting, in which the delegates from the southern states gave interesting sketches of the material prospect of various southern states, with statistics which supplied startling information to those who were not personally familiar with that section. The speeches were witty and full of spirit, and put the association into a fine humor. The speakers were: Gen. J. H. Rogers, of Texas; Mr. F. G. Rogers, of Georgia; Mr. J. H. Rogers, of Kentucky; Mr. J. H. Rogers, of Alabama; Mr. J. H. Rogers, of Florida; Mr. J. H. Rogers, of Louisiana; Mr. J. H. Rogers, of Mississippi; Mr. J. H. Rogers, of Arkansas; Mr. J. H. Rogers, of Missouri; Mr. J. H. Rogers, of Illinois; Mr. J. H. Rogers, of Indiana; Mr. J. H. Rogers, of Ohio; Mr. J. H. Rogers, of Pennsylvania; Mr. J. H. Rogers, of New York; Mr. J. H. Rogers, of New Jersey; Mr. J. H. Rogers, of Delaware; Mr. J. H. Rogers, of Maryland; Mr. J. H. Rogers, of Virginia; Mr. J. H. Rogers, of North Carolina; Mr. J. H. Rogers, of South Carolina; Mr. J. H. Rogers, of Georgia; Mr. J. H. Rogers, of Florida; Mr. J. H. Rogers, of Alabama; Mr. J. H. Rogers, of Louisiana; Mr. J. H. Rogers, of Mississippi; Mr. J. H. Rogers, of Arkansas; Mr. J. H. Rogers, of Missouri; Mr. J. H. Rogers, of Illinois; Mr. J. H. Rogers, of Indiana; Mr. J. H. Rogers, of Ohio; Mr. J. H. Rogers, of Pennsylvania; Mr. J. H. Rogers, of New York; Mr. J. H.
